Volunteer Rights Inquiry

Volunteer Rights Inquiry

The national Volunteer Rights Inquiry is keen to hear from anyone with an interest in the issue of volunteer rights.

The Inquiry wants to hear from you, whether you are:

- someone with good or bad experiences to share
 - a volunteer
 - a volunteer manager
 - a representative of a volunteer involving organisation
 - someone in the public, private or voluntary and community sector
- or simply someone with an opinion on the topic.

The Inquiry is especially keen to hear people's thoughts on how volunteer involving organisations can prevent problems by treating volunteers well and what mechanisms could be put in place to provide an independent way of sorting out problems if things do go wrong.

Merry Xmas

Here are some silly jokes found in our crackers that you may (or may not) enjoy.....

How do you save meatballs from drowning?
Put them in gravy boats.

What's the difference between a fish & a piano?
You can't tuna fish.

What did the shy pebble say?
I wish I was a little bolder.

Why did the baker get an electric shock?
Because he stood on a bun and a currant ran up his leg.
